This site uses cookies – small text files that are placed on your machine to help the site provide a better user experience. In general, cookies are used to retain user preferences, store information for things like shopping carts, and provide anonymised tracking data to third party applications like Google Analytics. As a rule, cookies will make your browsing experience better. However, you may prefer to disable cookies on this site and on others. The most effective way to do this is to disable cookies in your browser. We suggest consulting the Help section of your browser or taking a look at the About Cookies website which offers guidance for all modern browsers.

Below you'll find a list of the cookies that we use.

Strictly necessary

We use the following strictly necessary cookies:

Description – These cookies are essential for you to browse the website and use its features, such as accessing secure areas of the site

Purpose – Cookies that allow web shops to hold your items in your cart while you are shopping online are an example of strictly necessary cookies. These cookies will generally be first-party session cookies

Analytical/performance

We use the following analytical/performance cookies:

Description – collect information about how you use a website

Purpose – which pages you visited, and which links you clicked on. None of this information can be used to identify you. It is all aggregated and, therefore, anonymised. Their sole purpose is to improve website functions.

Functionality

We use the following functionality cookies:

Description – allow our website to remember choices you have made in the past

Purpose – When using our website you may wish to automate part of the information which you have inputted before. This may include your name, date of birth, address, contact details, username and passwords.
